Gertrude and Alice
100 Years, 100 Roses
1907 - 2007

Sempre Fidelis: Gertrude Stein and Alice B. Toklas
A centenary celebration for their first meeting

9 September 2007, Sunday afternoon, four o'clock

Lancaster Literary Guild
131 North Lime Street
Lancaster, Pennsylvania 17603

Event to include an exhibition of Van Vechten's photographs of them; a vitrine of G&A rarities; a forty-five minute program of excerpts from their writings (with a narrative to connect them and some passages set to music; cocktails and finger food from Alice's recipes afterward; plus an All Kinds Blintzes Press pamphlet of selections from their writings for sale for the benefit of the Lancaster Literary Guild.

Musical selections to include I Am Rose (two versions, Ned Rorem and David Diamond), A Valentine for Sherwood Anderson (William Flanagan), A Very Valentine (Vernon Duke), and A Sonatina Followed by Another (Richard Banks), and Some Sheep Are Loving (Richard Hundley).